

The Seeadler was built using Birch plywood and the underside of the fuselage was finished with fabric applied over the plywood. The whole glider was painted with several coats of glossy Clear Dope for waterproofing.

Gö 652 modified

Removable water rudder

For land operations a special deep skid was added

Drawn by: Vincent Cockett - 2011
 Updated: March 24th - 2014

Seeadler - Hans Jacobs - 1935